

E. COHEN

for GOVERNMENT CONTRACTORS

AND COMPANY, CPAs

at a glance...

Develop a solid business and compliance foundation while building on profitable ideas.

This is our commitment to government contractors. Providing services and selling to the federal government has never been more appealing. Success in this industry depends not only on sound management and business principles, but also proper compliance and planning specific to the federal government.

ECC's professionals have over thirty years' experience serving the accounting needs of this industry and the compliance requirements of the DCAA (Defense Contract Audit Agency) and FAR (Federal Acquisition Regulations).

"Honesty and integrity are the two most valuable traits we have come to rely on in our E. Cohen and Company, CPAs advisor, Alex Brager. For over 14 years, Alex has provided us with his honest opinion on what is right, wrong, and gray when it comes to our business decisions. Even when there are gray areas, we count on Alex's integrity and experience with government contractors to provide the best possible solution for our business."
