

SmartCPAs

ERIC COHEN

President, selected as one of the area's Top 50 CPAs
E. COHEN AND COMPANY, CPAS

Cohen has demonstrated tremendous leadership and entrepreneurial skills by growing the firm from a two-person firm in 1991 to a regional full service accounting firm with over 20 professionals in 2007. His success is based on delivering top quality service while maintaining a personal relationship with his clients. Cohen thinks outside the box when it comes to understanding his clients and meeting their needs. His clients' have benefited from the firm's proactive tax planning approach, for example cost segregation services, which allows clients significant tax savings by reclassifying property for depreciation purposes. This dedication to customized client service has fostered a 95% client retention rate at Cohen's firm.

Do you know a SmartCPA? SmartCEO magazine knows 50. SmartCEO celebrates the fourth year of the SmartCPA program, based on nominations from SmartCEO readers, business owners and firms, and is proud to bring you the brightest and best Certified Public Accountants in the Greater Washington area.