PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Eric Cohen is the President and founder of E. Cohen and Company, CPAs, which specializes in auditing, taxation, accounting services, computer systems, internal control evaluations, and litigation support services. For over twenty-five years, he has provided services to entities of all sizes in the Washington, DC metropolitan area, advising them on tax compliance and planning, estate planning, and business development.

Eric primarily provides tax research, planning and compliance services to high-income individuals, C-corporations, LLC's, S-corporations and partnerships. He also provides audit and accounting services to these same entities. Additionally, he has extensive experience with computer applications for financial/tax planning and analysis, accounting systems design and implementation, and database management.

His industry specializations include real estate, not-for-profit, wholesalers and professional service companies.

He has provided expert testimony in the District Court of Maryland and has provided litigation support services. These services include providing legal analysis, tax analysis, and acting as liaison between counsel on legal matters.

Eric has acted as managing partner for various partnerships and has managed the financial affairs of their affiliated entities and trusts.
